MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

President Sends:

I hope everyone is having a great winter. Our Board Meeting will be this Thursday 28 February at 1400 hrs. Our membership meeting is set for Saturday 2 March, with lunch at noon and the meeting at 1300 hrs.

There will be a SF/Ranger breakfast at the VFW this Saturday morning before our meeting. If you are able to make both, it would be good to have you.

Cotulla Wild Hog Cookoff is coming up in less than two weeks. It will be a great weekend, and we'll have a chance to welcome Mayor Nathan Dial on Thursday, the 7th, before leaving for Cotulla.

This year is an election year, and we will be looking for individuals to come forward to fill some vacant positions. We have an amazing organization and I hope to see it grow more in the future.

We will have our Chapter Memorial Ceremony during our meeting time in April. It is a solemn event and one of great importance.

This is a quick message as there is a lot going on for me this month. I truly appreciate the team effort of our chapter. Chapter XV is a great chapter due to its members.

Until Saturday, I hope everyone stays safe and enjoys their family

$$$ DOLLARS AND CENTS

Treasurer's Report, February 2019

February was a good month for the Chapter. We had another great turnout of membership for the meeting, which also gave us a cash boost for the door prize drawing and merchandise sales.

A hearty thank-you goes out to a very generous Chapter donor who wishes to remain anonymous; also to Simeon Trombitas, who made a sizeable contribution, and three members who continued their monthly contributions by payroll deduction (Ramiro Daniel, John Rodden and George Garcia).

The Fiesta medal sales are proving to be a great source of income. Newsletter ad sales and renewals are also a good source of income for the Chapter.

This month, the president mailed a check for our annual charitable contribution to Save the Montagnard People. The only other expenses were for the noon meeting meal; money on the bar that had been donated by Steve Schoenicke; a small memorial gathering for Steve Hermann's father, and the balance on the website maintenance fee.

Your board is managing your funds wisely and all projects are still within budget.

We hope to see you at the membership meeting on March 3 and at the Cotulla Wild Hog Cook Off March 8-11.

Come to Cotulla for hot pork, cold beer

From Mike Brown:

The Cotulla Wild Hog Cookoff will take place at the LaSalle County Fairgrounds Saturday 09 March, 2019. The team will be cooking breakfast at 0900 and preparing the BBQ entries 0700-1100.

All morning and afternoon, BBQ and beer will be flowing at the Chapter BBQ area located on your right as you enter the fairgrounds. Bring lawn chairs, your drinks of choice, hats/sunscreen, and any side dishes or specialty food you wish.

Tickets will be available at the fence line as you enter the parking area on the right. Competition announcement will be at 1500 with live music to follow. It's a full-blown county fair, so bring the little ones if applicable.

Editor's note: One Chapter member planning to attend the Wild Hog Cookoff is Nate Dial of New Mexico, a politico who gained notoriety in that state for challenging a rule barring open-carry of weapons at the state legislature. Photo below shows some of the New Mexico sheriffs who were also refused entry because they were armed. The rule has now been changed. Dial will be honored at a reception at VFW Post 8541 on March 7 (See invitation.) →

Fiesta plans are moving along

Gordon Lee reports that sales of the Fiesta medals are going very well. Medals and brochures have been delivered to the Fiesta Store on Broadway and information has been sent to KENS-TV for a medal promotion. A mail-order program is also being set up so people can order by email, pay for postage and receive the medals by mail for $12.

Karen Hermann says our reservations have been made for Pin Pandemonium on April 18 at HemisFair Plaza and for Fiesta Fireworks at Fort Sam Houston on April 20. Susan Marshall has produced a sign-up sheet for volunteers and designed a display tablecloth for medal sales.

New wrinkles for Canyon Lake

Raul de la Garza reminds us there is a two-night minimum stay for cottage rentals at Canyon Lake during our May 17-19 weekend. Price for the three-bedroom trailers is $110 per night, or $220 for the weekend.

Also this year, the Air Force administrators of JBSA Recreation Area at Canyon Lake are requiring everyone to fill out individual reservation forms ahead of time. Therefore, you will be able to request a specific trailer if there is one that you prefer.

The forms will be available at the March and April membership meetings.

A Month of Celebration and Sacrifice

March is a month full of holidays. If you want to check out how many, click on <http://www.holidayinsights.com/moreholidays/march.htm> and see them all — both serious (Ash Wednesday, International Women's Day, Earth Day) and silly (Peanut Butter Lover's Day, Potato Chip Day, and Chocolate Covered Raisin Day.) Holidays are identified and observed for many reasons but typically to remember. For this reason, I would like to draw your attention to three holidays occurring in March this year.

On the 5th of March, it is Mardi Gras AKA Carnival AKA Fat Tuesday AKA Shrove Tuesday. It is a time to celebrate all that is good and enjoyable in life (usually to excess, but that is a different matter). Eat what you want, drink what you want, celebrate with friends and family — all to recognize that you have been blessed with many blessings. The point of Mardi Gras (at least originally) is to remind you of all that you have which can be put away and not used. It is the celebration of all those things of the flesh, those luxuries, that will be put away during the season of Lent beginning on Ash Wednesday, which this year is March 6th. Long recognized as denying yourself (sacrificing) those pleasures of life in recognition of all Jesus sacrificed for humanity.

The 40 days of Lent are now often used to reflect on our own mortality and is a somber season as we consider that there is a time for living and a time for dying. The thing is, right during the season of Lent, there is St Patrick's Day — a feast holiday during the time of fasting. A holiday used by just about everyone to go out and celebrate life again. Just a little reminder that even during the greatest of fasts or the worst of times, you can find something good. Remember, the blacker the sky, the brighter you see the stars.

So, enjoy your Fat Tuesday, remember sacrifices on Ash Wednesday and the season of Lent, and always look for the bright spots.

Reminder: This year on Ash Wednesday, I will again be providing the Imposition of Ashes at the breakfast gathering hosted by ASWAA at the Drop Zone (1804 E. Carson St., just outside the Walters Street Gate at Fort Sam). Whether you desire the ashes or not, come and enjoy a good breakfast with other Airborne Soldiers.

This is his true life story.

CELLINI

FREEDOM FIGHTER

BIOGRAPHY of an AMERICAN PATRIOT
MICK J. PRODGER with TUTUC CELLINI

A new book
coming soon
from

PUBLISHING

Born in New York and raised in Italy, Vito "Tutuc" Cellini went from street gangster to soldier to resistance fighter to secret agent – all before he was twenty-one years of age.

Drafted into the fascist Italian army against his will and sent to the front line, he deserted and joined Tito's Yugoslavian Partisans fighting the Nazis, returning to Italy to join the Allies amid one of the biggest cover-ups of the European war.

He ended the war working covertly with the American OSS (forerunner of the CIA) hunting down criminals and undesirables.

Sailing home to New York in 1948 with a forged Italian passport and just 12 cents in his pocket, he was arrested at Ellis Island. Since then, Cellini's inventiveness, reputation and irrepressible sense of adventure have taken him all over the world, often putting his life in great peril.

Respected by the New York Mafia, Cellini later negotiated with some of the most feared organized crime syndicates in Italy. Nicaragua's President Somoza sought his advice on guerilla warfare and weapons tactics, and while in Nicaragua he was embroiled in the assassination of a high profile journalist and had to flee for his life.

Cellini has kept Federal Agents informed of credible plots to assassinate known enemies of the United States. He even served for a short time, albeit inadvertently, as bodyguard for a notorious drug lord in Mexico.

He has never been afraid of taking the law into his own hands because, he says, sometimes that is the only way to survive.

His inventions, including the Cellini Muzzle Brake, have earned him 19 patents and the undying respect and gratitude of members of the U.S. Special Forces and Law Enforcement. He has been privileged to count some of America's most revered and decorated military heroes among his closest friends.

Cellini is, more than anything, a patriot; a man who puts honor above all. And while some of his adventures make fictional spies and secret agents pale by comparison, unlike his fictitious counterparts, Cellini always remained faithful to one woman.

Now at the age of 94, he finally feels comfortable talking about his life, and he isn't pulling any punches.

The good. The bad. The ugly. The truth.

Special Forces Creed

*I am an American Special Forces Soldier. A professional!
I will do all that my nation requires of me.
I am a volunteer, knowing well the hazards of my profession.
I serve with the memory of those who have gone before me:
Roger's Rangers, Francis Marion, Mosby's Rangers,
the 1st Special Service Force, the Jedburghs, Detachment 101,
and the Special Forces Soldiers of the Vietnam War,
Who were awarded 17 Medals of Honor and 90 Distinguished Service Crosses.
I pledge to uphold the honor and integrity of all these,
In all That I am, all I do.
I am a professional soldier.
I will teach and fight whatever my nation requires,
To liberate the oppressed.
I will strive always, to excel in every art and artifice of war.
I know that I will be called upon to perform tasks in isolation
Far from familiar faces and voices.
With the help and guidance of my God,
I will conquer my fears and succeed.
I will keep my mind and body clean, alert and strong, for this is my debt to those who depend upon me.
I will not fail those with whom I serve, I will not bring shame upon myself or the Forces. I will maintain myself, my arms, and my equipment
In an immaculate state as befits a Special Forces Soldier.
My goal is to succeed in any mission—and live to succeed again.
I may not be found wanting, that I will not fail in this sacred trust*

Special Forces Poem

By P.A. White

*I've lifted my glass and drank my fill, Of the wine that's known as pride.
I've walked among some gallant men,
And watched them stride for stride. I've crammed my head with devious ways
To defeat the enemy's goal. And kept inside for loyalty's sake,
The tales that can't be told. The need is gone for my service now,
I'll hang up my green beret and sip no more the wine of pride,
Till called again someday.
The strength and character of an organization are measured by its members.*

Bob and Vicki Walker

RECUERDO (REMEMBRANCE)

I sing of one who would remain unsung, whose name would fade like tracks upon the sand. For him no bells were ordered to be rung; no banners lowered by a grieving land. No bugles blew the moment that he expired; no clock was stopped to fix the final hour; no doors were draped in black, no cannons fired. These are the rites of men of rank and power.

But still I sing of him with mounting pride,
who seized the challenge with uncommon heart then ran the course with firm unfaltering stride to reach the mark determined from the start.

The measure of a man who runs the race — lies in his distance from the starting place.
