DON'T FORGET

• By order of the mayor and county judge, almost everything in our area has shut down due to the spread of coronavirus. "Social distancing" means no big meetings or gatherings of people; therefore, our annual Memorial Service has been canceled, as well as the monthly board and membership meetings. In fact, VFW Post 8541 is closed to the public for now.

- One thing that is NOT canceled is the Sunday "Swordbearer's Chapel" in the Rodela Room at the VFW. Father Steve says the time has changed to 11 a.m. and seating will be appropriately spaced out.
- With the closing of schools, President John says most scheduled JROTC presentations have been canceled. He will mail the awards for presentation later.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

President Sends:

Greetings Chapter XV! This April, Palm Sunday will be on April 5th, followed by Good Friday on April 10th. I would like to wish everyone a healthy and happy Easter for 2020. This year Easter Sunday falls on April 12th.

THE CHAPTER XV MEMORIAL SERVICE, BOARD AND MEMBERSHIP MEETINGS HAVE ALL BEEN CANCELED DUE TO COVID-19. All Fiesta events have been postponed till November 2020. Please follow the guidelines set by our governor and mayor to assist us in staying safe.

By now we are all aware of the seriousness of the coronavirus (COVID 19). Please keep washing your hands and keep yourself updated on signs and symptoms via internet and news. Fever, cough and difficulty breathing are the most common symptoms. Unfortunately, by the time a person shows these symptoms it could be too late.

There is a simple self-check that we can all do every morning. Take a deep breath and hold your breath for more than 10 seconds. If you can do this without coughing, discomfort, stuffiness or tightness, etc, it proves there is no fibrosis in the lungs, basically indicating no infection. Another tip is to ensure your mouth & throat are moist, never DRY. Keep taking a few sips of water throughout the day. Doing so will wash the virus down through the esophagus and into your stomach where your stomach acid will kill it. If you do not drink enough water, the virus can enter your windpipes and into your lungs. That's the dangerous part. So, drink water! (Thank you, Pat Connolly, for that information).

Our May board meeting is scheduled for Friday, May 1st at 10am at the VFW. We do not have a membership meeting for the month of May because we have our annual Canyon Lake Picnic. As of now, our picnic is still scheduled for 15-17 May (Fri – Sun). I will keep you all posted of any changes.

Thank you Chapter XV for all your help and support!

John A. Lopez
President, SFA Chapter XV

$$$ DOLLARS AND CENTS

Treasurer's Report, March 2020

My first event went off fairly well. I was able to get the SFA cargo trailer to Cotulla and back uneventfully.

Since the April meeting has been canceled due to the virus, that means cost of all of the lunches for the rest of the year have been covered.

I want to thank John Rodden and George Garcia for their monthly donations.

In that I am out of town, I do not have the information from last meeting with me, so this is going to be short.

Cotulla Wild Hog Cook-Off: Small but Fun

EVER TRIED WILD HOG SCHNITZEL? That was our team's entry in the annual Wild Hog Cook-off in Cotulla, and it was downright delicious! Chef Steve Hermann and Trail Boss Mike Brown turned in the tasty treat and waited for their well-deserved trophy. (No, not this time.)

Steve's outstanding breakfast tacos, pulled pork, cabrito and other chow kept the small crowd happy. As for drinks, we had Longtab beer kegs, courtesy of Mike; Bloody Marys and shots of Leatherwood Green Beret whisky, courtesy of Buddy Gee; and a well-shaken bottle of champagne, courtesy of Susan Marshall. We even had our very own Port-a-Potty, so we are moving up in the world!

Coronavirus kept many folks away from the party, but those who ventured out to Cotulla had a wonderful time.

Make virtual visits to older veterans

Last month I wrote a message about March coming in like a lion and going out like a lamb. Referring to the state of springtime weather, it hit the mark as our recent temps going into April have been great and the skies are getting sunny.

But it seems there is a different lion to contend with that came in during March and does not seem to be leaving anytime soon. That is the threat of the coronavirus. There is much going on with the virus and a lot of misinformation being put out on all sides so stick with the reliable sources such as CDC, follow basic sanitation guidelines (which really should not be a new thing), and keep distant from people who are sick – or stay distant if you are sick.

But there is much more to the problem than killing germs and stopping spread. It is the spirit of fear that has come with the virus. Panic buying, hoarding, and being afraid of neighbors is the horrible outcome. The people most at risk, those over 60, are not only the most at risk of infection – they are also most likely to be alone. Veteran organizations such as the SFA, the VFW, and others are often the primary social activities of older veterans, and these opportunities are now closed until further notice.

Jesus said we would be judged over how we treated the sick and the shut-in. We may not be free to visit right now but we can all make a phone call, send an email, and ping somebody's FaceBook. Spend a few minutes doing God's work and virtually visit our more senior veteran brothers and sisters.

Before closing – let me remind you of our Chapel here at VFW 8541. (Typically) Sundays at 1100, we have "Swordbearer Chapel – A Veteran Faith Community" open to everybody, with a special emphasis on serving those who have served and their families. The various restrictions and safeguards created by the coronavirus make public worship a challenge. That said -- whether meeting together publicly or not – know that you are being prayed for. During observation of the coronavirus restrictions please feel free to contact me directly regarding private celebration of the Mass options.

CELLINI

FREEDOM FIGHTER

BIOGRAPHY of an AMERICAN PATRIOT
MICK J. PRODGER with TUTUC CELLINI

A new book
coming soon
from

PUBLISHING

Born in New York and raised in Italy, Vito "Tutuc" Cellini went from street gangster to soldier to resistance fighter to secret agent – all before he was twenty-one years of age.

Drafted into the fascist Italian army against his will and sent to the front line, he deserted and joined Tito's Yugoslavian Partisans fighting the Nazis, returning to Italy to join the Allies amid one of the biggest cover-ups of the European war.

He ended the war working covertly with the American OSS (forerunner of the CIA) hunting down criminals and undesirables.

Sailing home to New York in 1948 with a forged Italian passport and just 12 cents in his pocket, he was arrested at Ellis Island. Since then, Cellini's inventiveness, reputation and irrepressible sense of adventure have taken him all over the world, often putting his life in great peril.

Respected by the New York Mafia, Cellini later negotiated with some of the most feared organized crime syndicates in Italy. Nicaragua's President Somoza sought his advice on guerilla warfare and weapons tactics, and while in Nicaragua he was embroiled in the assassination of a high profile journalist and had to flee for his life.

Cellini has kept Federal Agents informed of credible plots to assassinate known enemies of the United States. He even served for a short time, albeit inadvertently, as bodyguard for a notorious drug lord in Mexico.

He has never been afraid of taking the law into his own hands because, he says, sometimes that is the only way to survive.

His inventions, including the Cellini Muzzle Brake, have earned him 19 patents and the undying respect and gratitude of members of the U.S. Special Forces and Law Enforcement. He has been privileged to count some of America's most revered and decorated military heroes among his closest friends.

Cellini is, more than anything, a patriot; a man who puts honor above all. And while some of his adventures make fictional spies and secret agents pale by comparison, unlike his fictitious counterparts, Cellini always remained faithful to one woman.

Now at the age of 94, he finally feels comfortable talking about his life, and he isn't pulling any punches.

The good. The bad. The ugly. The truth.

Special Forces Creed

*I am an American Special Forces Soldier. A professional!
I will do all that my nation requires of me.
I am a volunteer, knowing well the hazards of my profession.
I serve with the memory of those who have gone before me:
Roger's Rangers, Francis Marion, Mosby's Rangers,
the 1st Special Service Force, the Jedburghs, Detachment 101,
and the Special Forces Soldiers of the Vietnam War,
Who were awarded 17 Medals of Honor and 90 Distinguished Service Crosses.
I pledge to uphold the honor and integrity of all these,
In all That I am, all I do.
I am a professional soldier.
I will teach and fight whatever my nation requires,
To liberate the oppressed.
I will strive always, to excel in every art and artifice of war.
I know that I will be called upon to perform tasks in isolation
Far from familiar faces and voices.
With the help and guidance of my God,
I will conquer my fears and succeed.
I will keep my mind and body clean, alert and strong, for this is my debt to those who depend upon me.
I will not fail those with whom I serve, I will not bring shame upon myself or the Forces. I will maintain myself, my arms, and my equipment
In an immaculate state as befits a Special Forces Soldier.
My goal is to succeed in any mission—and live to succeed again.
I may not be found wanting, that I will not fail in this sacred trust*

Special Forces Poem

By P.A. White

*I've lifted my glass and drank my fill, Of the wine that's known as pride.
I've walked among some gallant men,
And watched them stride for stride. I've crammed my head with devious ways
To defeat the enemy's goal. And kept inside for loyalty's sake,
The tales that can't be told. The need is gone for my service now,
I'll hang up my green beret and sip no more the wine of pride,
Till called again someday.
The strength and character of an organization are measured by its members.

RECUERDO (REMEMBRANCE)

I sing of one who would remain unsung, whose name would fade like tracks upon the sand. For him no bells were ordered to be rung; no banners lowered by a grieving land. No bugles blew the moment that he expired; no clock was stopped to fix the final hour; no doors were draped in black, no cannons fired. These are the rites of men of rank and power.

But still I sing of him with mounting pride,
who seized the challenge with uncommon
heart then ran the course with firm unfaltering stride to reach the mark determined from the start.

The measure of a man who runs the race —
lies in his distance from the starting place.
