MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

President Sends:

Hello Chapter XV. It will soon be time to turn those clocks up an hour. March is now upon us, and winter will be winding down this month, and what a winter it turned out to be. I hope everyone survived the snow, ice, and for some, not having electricity and water. Most of us here in San Antonio are always wanting some cooler weather and snow for winter. Well, you know the old saying "be careful what you wish for". I do hope everyone made it through it ok. Our winters here are usually rather mild.

Daylight savings time will start on Sunday, March 14th, so do not forget to turn your clocks up an hour that Sunday. Saint Patrick's Day is Wednesday the 17th, so have yourself some Jameson, Baileys, Irish car bombs, black and tans, or all the above! Spring 2021 will officially begin on Saturday, March 20th. Palm Sunday is on March 28th.

The La Salle County Wild Hog Cook-Off in Cotulla, TX has been CANCELED this year due to COVID. I know several of us look forward every year to make the trip and have a good time, but with the pandemic still among us, it was not a safe idea.

JROTC awards will be starting this month and may be kept for just the students due to COVID. However, if you are interested in presenting a JROTC Special Forces Association Award of Excellence to a JROTC cadet at one of our local high schools, please come talk with me and I will let you know if the school is having an open ceremony.

Just a quick reminder, our next membership meeting will be on Saturday, March 6th, and we will have the Special Forces Association national president in town to join us. SFA national president Kevin Harry will be visiting VFW Post 8541, Longtab Brewing Company, the Green Beret Foundation, and Black Rifle Coffee. Our next board meeting is also on Saturday, March 6th at 11am, followed by lunch at Noon, then our membership meeting at 1pm. I look forward to seeing you there.

Stay safe!

Lent: A Time to Care, Share, and Provide

Growing up in the north, we had a saying. March comes in like a lion but goes out like a lamb. Many of you have probably heard it, or something like it, before. It means, of course, that the harshness of winter is still roaring during the first days of March, but by the end, the dawn of April spring is making the weather enjoyable. This year those of us in Texas might apply the principle to February.

After a few days of our typical pleasant Texas weather, the "arctic blast" rolled in and froze the State. Depending on where a person lived, we all faced lack of power, heat, water, iced over roads and the inability to travel. Making it worse, depending on your provider the internet was either off or intermittent. With closed roads and severe weather, businesses closed, the VFW closed, and for all practical purposes, we were trapped in our homes without the things we needed for living.

There is something interesting thing about the arctic blast. It hit us just a couple of days before Ash Wednesday and the beginning of Lent. For those that observe Lent, it is a time of fasting from something you enjoy until Easter. The regular list of things people choose are chocolate, booze, coffee, and other things we can certainly live without. This year, whether you are the type of person who observes a Lenten Fast or not, everybody in Texas was fasting from public utilities – all those things listed above that are required for life. Suddenly what is necessary for life and so readily available here in the United States that we take them for granted were taken away. We quickly learned to take care of, share with, and provide to, family, friends, and neighbors. Then the sun came back, warmed the earth, and we have started returning to normal.

I have one idea for you. Do not return to "normal." Keep in your daily living those principles of taking care of, sharing with, and providing for, family, friends, and neighbors. That will be a much better Lenten practice than giving up a bit of chocolate or cup of coffee, and applies to all no matter the faith you practice.

Chapel Every Sunday. If you do not have a regular place of worship but are looking for one (or just a visit), please join us. Each Sunday at 1100, we have a chapel service in the Rodela room of VFW 8541. Chapel is open to everybody (VFW members and non-members).

RECUERDO (REMEMBRANCE)

I sing of one who would remain unsung, whose name would fade like tracks upon the sand. For him no bells were ordered to be rung; no banners lowered by a grieving land. No bugles blew the moment that he expired; no clock was stopped to fix the final hour; no doors were draped in black, no cannons fired. These are the rites of men of rank and power.

But still I sing of him with mounting pride, who seized the challenge with uncommon heart then ran the course with firm unfaltering stride to reach the mark determined from the start.

The measure of a man who runs the race — lies in his distance from the starting place.

Special Forces Creed

*I am an American Special Forces Soldier. A professional!
I will do all that my nation requires of me.
I am a volunteer, knowing well the hazards of my profession.
I serve with the memory of those who have gone before me:
Roger's Rangers, Francis Marion, Mosby's Rangers,
the 1st Special Service Force, the Jedburghs, Detachment 101,
and the Special Forces Soldiers of the Vietnam War,
Who were awarded 17 Medals of Honor and 90 Distinguished Service Crosses.
I pledge to uphold the honor and integrity of all these,
In all That I am, all I do.
I am a professional soldier.
I will teach and fight whatever my nation requires,
To liberate the oppressed.
I will strive always, to excel in every art and artifice of war.
I know that I will be called upon to perform tasks in isolation
Far from familiar faces and voices.
With the help and guidance of my God,
I will conquer my fears and succeed.
I will keep my mind and body clean, alert and strong, for this is my debt to those who depend upon me.
I will not fail those with whom I serve, I will not bring shame upon myself or the Forces. I will maintain myself, my arms, and my equipment
In an immaculate state as befits a Special Forces Soldier.
My goal is to succeed in any mission—and live to succeed again.
I may not be found wanting, that I will not fail in this sacred trust*

Special Forces Poem

By P.A. White

*I've lifted my glass and drank my fill, Of the wine that's known as pride.
I've walked among some gallant men,
And watched them stride for stride. I've crammed my head with devious ways
To defeat the enemy's goal. And kept inside for loyalty's sake,
The tales that can't be told. The need is gone for my service now,
I'll hang up my green beret and sip no more the wine of pride,
Till called again someday.
The strength and character of an organization are measured by its members.
