MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

President Sends:

The Board meeting is Thursday (Halloween) 31 October at 1400, with our membership meeting Saturday 2 November at 1300. Lunch will be served from 1200-1300 and the meeting will start at 1300.

I still have Christmas Banquet tickets available for purchase. It is important to purchase your tickets soon as they will go quickly. We will have at least a table for each of the redeploying SF units here in Texas.

The SOD-A welcome home went well, and everyone had a good time. There is a picture and a small writeup in this issue.

C-5-19th Special Forces are back here in San Antonio. I will meet with their leadership on the weekend of our meeting and hope to lock in a welcome home for January. Most of the soldiers are on leave or dwell time following their deployment. The Yellow Ribbon and awards ceremony were moved to January and I will get the information out as I get it.

Dick's Last Resort was a success and I want to thank everyone involved in the planning and execution. We are hopeful we can continue this fundraiser and can lock in a date early next year. It was a good time and I believe everyone enjoyed themselves.

Remember, voting is this month at our meeting. If you are unable to be at the meeting, please attempt to mail in your ballot. Again, it was great to see so many members volunteer to continue supporting the board and new volunteers to take positions. We have a bright future ahead and we will continue to grow.

I hope everyone stays safe and enjoys their family.

$$$ DOLLARS AND CENTS

Treasurer's Report, October 2019

The November general membership meeting will be significant and the last meeting for calendar year 2019. This also means the final meeting to be conducted by your current board of officers. We hope to see you there.

The 15th Annual Fundraiser at Dick's Last Resort was a great success once again. This year, ticket sales were lagging, but the silent auction compensated. We tip our berets to the many donors of valued auction items. A special thank you goes out to Sheri Green of Dream Vacations for donating a three-night stay at a luxury spa in Tulum, Mexico (won by Sharon Gee) and to our country singer Rick Salinas for donating a prized Cordoba guitar autographed by Charlie Daniels (won by Fred Solis.)

Thanks to John Rodden, George Garcia and Steve Schoenicke for their cash donations.

A good time was had by all at the Fort Sam Houston Oktoberfest but merchandise sales were modest. Other income for the month included meeting merchandise and door prize ticket sales.

Bill Neuiszer and Rudy Johnson sponsored the October meal. The VFW Post kitchen prepared a traditional Oktoberfest meal of delicious wurst and appropriate sides. Danke schön!

The chapter budget for 2020 will be briefed for a vote of approval at the meeting.

Donations, membership renewal and tickets for Christmas Banquet can be purchased on line at www.sfa-xv.org.

Fun, food, friends at Dick's Last Resort

Once again, members of Chapter XV gathered to have fun and raise funds at Dick's Last Resort on the Riverwalk. It was the 15th year for this annual event, generously sponsored by Dick's.

Chapter XV President Bill Smith (left), with SGM Lindly and Lynn Toomer at welcome-home day on Canyon Lake as the National Guard detachment returned home from deployment to Syria and Iraq.

Condolences to JR Garza family

Our sincere condolences go to JR Garza, who lost a brother and a sister within one week during October.

His brother Mario G. Garza died Oct. 10 at the age of 66, having served in the Air Force and worked at Kelly AFB and later for the City of San Antonio. Mario is survived by his wife of 43 years, Mary Helen Garza, two children and seven siblings.

JR's sister, Sylvia Garza Orozco, age 73, died on Oct. 15. In addition to JR and the other siblings, she is survived by her husband of 56 years, Eugene Centeno Orozco, four children and numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

May they rest in peace.

Infantry Honor
Chapter member Robert Simpson has been awarded the Order of Saint Maurice at the National Infantry Museum at Fort Benning. The museum also presented certificates of honor for his service in the Korean War and World War II. Standing with him at the museum is his son, Col. Robert H. Simpson (Ret.)

Remembering Mando

From Bill Smith

It was seven years ago this 30 October 2019 we lost our President Mando Canales. His passing was a shock to many and a night I will always remember. Mando was about to depart to Fort Bragg to be inducted into the Distinguished Member of the Regiment (DMOR). God took him home before he could receive this honor. I was going through some old photos and came across this one (below). It shows a group of Chapter XV members having a cold brew graveside at the one-year anniversary of Mando's passing. May we tip a beer in memory of Mando "Red Bird." As Mando would say, "Do not be a cheap Charlie."

Medical Survey of Special Forces

The Green Beret Foundation is collaborating with the Department of Neurosurgery at Mount Sinai Hospital in New York to investigate unique risk factors and exposures U.S. Army Special Forces have been experiencing. If there is an increased risk of Green Berets developing cancer, this survey may help determine how and why.

All data collected will be stored securely in a HIPAA-compliant manner and will be encrypted accordingly. Data will only be accessible and analyzed by the Mount Sinai principal investigators. The results will be shared with GBF to further their mission of supporting unconventional warriors and the Special Forces Regiment.

Prosit! Oktoberfest brings out Chapter's fun lovers

Chapter XV joined forces with VFW Post 8541 to participate in the event.

In World War II he fought with the armies of three different countries.

After that things really start to get complicated.

Soldier, resistance fighter, secret agent, inventor and American patriot.

This is his true life story.

CELLINI

FREEDOM FIGHTER

BIOGRAPHY of an AMERICAN PATRIOT
MICK J. PRODGER with TUTUC CELLINI

A new book
coming soon
from

PUBLISHING

Born in New York and raised in Italy, Vito "Tutuc" Cellini went from street gangster to soldier to resistance fighter to secret agent – all before he was twenty-one years of age.

Drafted into the fascist Italian army against his will and sent to the front line, he deserted and joined Tito's Yugoslavian Partisans fighting the Nazis, returning to Italy to join the Allies amid one of the biggest cover-ups of the European war.

He ended the war working covertly with the American OSS (forerunner of the CIA) hunting down criminals and undesirables.

Sailing home to New York in 1948 with a forged Italian passport and just 12 cents in his pocket, he was arrested at Ellis Island. Since then, Cellini's inventiveness, reputation and irrepressible sense of adventure have taken him all over the world, often putting his life in great peril.

Respected by the New York Mafia, Cellini later negotiated with some of the most feared organized crime syndicates in Italy. Nicaragua's President Somoza sought his advice on guerilla warfare and weapons tactics, and while in Nicaragua he was embroiled in the assassination of a high profile journalist and had to flee for his life.

Cellini has kept Federal Agents informed of credible plots to assassinate known enemies of the United States. He even served for a short time, albeit inadvertently, as bodyguard for a notorious drug lord in Mexico.

He has never been afraid of taking the law into his own hands because, he says, sometimes that is the only way to survive.

His inventions, including the Cellini Muzzle Brake, have earned him 19 patents and the undying respect and gratitude of members of the U.S. Special Forces and Law Enforcement. He has been privileged to count some of America's most revered and decorated military heroes among his closest friends.

Cellini is, more than anything, a patriot; a man who puts honor above all. And while some of his adventures make fictional spies and secret agents pale by comparison, unlike his fictitious counterparts, Cellini always remained faithful to one woman.

Now at the age of 94, he finally feels comfortable talking about his life, and he isn't pulling any punches.

The good. The bad. The ugly. The truth.

For Veterans Day, a chapel service at VFW

In a few days it will be Veterans Day. At 1100 on the 11th of November 1918 the First World War was over.

The Armistice Agreement was signed by the French, British, American, and German authorities representing their countries at 0500 declaring that six hours later the hostilities would cease. What was then known as the Great War, as it was supposedly "The War to End All Wars," later had to be redesignated World War I – World War II had erupted.

As we approach Veterans Day we celebrate the men and women who have taken it upon themselves to answer our nation's call. A call to leave behind the comforts and safety of home to live lives marked with sacrifice for the sake of people they do not know and who do not know them. Men and women who commit to endure hardship while others pursue lives of ease.

The American service member is a defender of freedom and bringer of freedom to others. We are one of the few nations in the world willing to commit our most valuable resource – our sons and daughters – to make the lives of people in other countries better. While there may be challenges in accomplishing the mission, the ideal of the mission is beyond what most people can ever imagine. That is why it is only a fraction of a single percent who enter military service. That is why this day – Veterans Day – will benefit all, vets and non vets alike. But while others are taking advantage of days off from work and sales on everything under the sun, those who have served, and their families, will celebrate a fact largely unrecognized by the public: America's soldiers, sailors, airmen and Marines have answered a call that borders on divine, reflects a Christ-like sacrifice, and deserves to be recognized.

Before closing – let me invite you to Chapel here at VFW 8541. Sunday the 10th of November at 1030 we shall hold "Swordbearers Chapel – A Veteran Faith Community" serving those who have served and their families.

Special Forces Creed

*I am an American Special Forces Soldier. A professional!
I will do all that my nation requires of me.
I am a volunteer, knowing well the hazards of my profession.
I serve with the memory of those who have gone before me:
Roger's Rangers, Francis Marion, Mosby's Rangers,
the 1st Special Service Force, the Jedburghs, Detachment 101,
and the Special Forces Soldiers of the Vietnam War,
Who were awarded 17 Medals of Honor and 90 Distinguished Service Crosses.
I pledge to uphold the honor and integrity of all these,
In all That I am, all I do.
I am a professional soldier.
I will teach and fight whatever my nation requires,
To liberate the oppressed.
I will strive always, to excel in every art and artifice of war.
I know that I will be called upon to perform tasks in isolation
Far from familiar faces and voices.
With the help and guidance of my God,
I will conquer my fears and succeed.
I will keep my mind and body clean, alert and strong, for this is my debt to those who depend upon me.
I will not fail those with whom I serve, I will not bring shame upon myself or the Forces. I will maintain myself, my arms, and my equipment
In an immaculate state as befits a Special Forces Soldier.
My goal is to succeed in any mission—and live to succeed again.
I may not be found wanting, that I will not fail in this sacred trust*

Special Forces Poem

By P.A. White

*I've lifted my glass and drank my fill, Of the wine that's known as pride.
I've walked among some gallant men,
And watched them stride for stride. I've crammed my head with devious ways
To defeat the enemy's goal. And kept inside for loyalty's sake,
The tales that can't be told. The need is gone for my service now,
I'll hang up my green beret and sip no more the wine of pride,
Till called again someday.
The strength and character of an organization are measured by its members.*

Bob and Vicki Walker

RECUERDO (REMEMBRANCE)

I sing of one who would remain unsung, whose name would fade like tracks upon the sand. For him no bells were ordered to be rung; no banners lowered by a grieving land. No bugles blew the moment that he expired; no clock was stopped to fix the final hour; no doors were draped in black, no cannons fired. These are the rites of men of rank and power.

But still I sing of him with mounting pride,
who seized the challenge with uncommon heart then ran the course with firm unfaltering stride to reach the mark determined from the start.

The measure of a man who runs the race —
lies in his distance from the starting place.
